

GUY VASSALL-ADAMS QC

PRIVACY NOTICE

Date of last revision: 15 November 2018

1. INTRODUCTION

I am committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. In order to provide legal services to my clients, including advice and representation services, I need to collect and hold personal data. This includes my client's personal data and the personal data of others who feature in the matter upon which I am instructed. This Privacy Notice describes to you:

- Who I am
- What personal data I collect and store about you, and how I collect it
- Why I collect personal data and what I do with it
- How I retain your information and keep it secure
- Your rights and how to exercise them
- How to contact me

2. WHO AM I?

For the purposes of data protection law, I am a "Data Controller". I am registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK's supervisory authority for data protection matters, for the personal data that I hold and process as a barrister. My registered address is Matrix Chambers, Griffin Building, Gray's Inn, London WC1R 5LN. My registration number is Z9150310.

If you would like to contact me about this notice, or to exercise any of your information rights (see below), you can contact me at the address above or via my practice team: PracticeTeamM@matrixlaw.co.uk.

3. WHAT INFORMATION DO I PROCESS FROM OR ABOUT YOU?

In the course of my business, which is the provision of legal services, I process personal data of many different types. This may include:

- Personal details, including contact details
- Family details
- Information on lifestyle and social circumstances
- Financial details
- Education, training and employment details
- Business details

I also process "special category", or sensitive classes of personal data. This may include information as to:

- Health
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Political opinions
- Religious beliefs
- Philosophical beliefs
- Trade union membership
- Sex life
- Sexual orientation

I also process personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences.

4. HOW DO I COLLECT PERSONAL DATA?

The vast majority of the personal data that I collect is provided to me by or on behalf of my clients for the purposes of enabling me to provide legal services to them.

5. WHOSE PERSONAL DATA DO I PROCESS?

I process personal data about my lay and professional clients, potential clients, about individuals who feature in the matter in respect of which I am asked to provide legal services, witnesses and experts, opponents, other barristers with whom I am working, court staff and members of the judiciary and others ancillary to actual or potential proceedings.

6. LAWFUL PROCESSING

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requires data controllers, including myself, to have a lawful reason (referred to in the GDPR as a “Lawful Basis” for processing personal data. I set out my lawful reasons for processing below. Please note that more than one may apply at any given time.

I will use your personal data only for the purposes for which it was provided to me, unless I fairly consider that I need it for another reason that is compatible with the original purpose and my professional obligations to my client do not prevent me from such use.

My lawful reasons for processing are:

- Contractual Necessity

- I will process personal data on the basis that it is necessary to enable me to fulfil my contractual duties to you or to take steps to enter into a contract with you.

- Legitimate Interests.

I process your personal data for my legitimate business purposes, which include the following:

- To provide legal services including advice and representation services to you as my client
- Where you are not my client, to provide legal services including advice and representation services to the client from whom or on whose behalf I have collected your personal data
- To carry out billing and administration services in relation to those services, including fee collection services carried out by Matrix staff
- To deal with complaints or concerns, including any legal or regulatory action
- To provide training to trainee barristers and work experience students

- Compliance with law

I process your personal data to enable me to comply with applicable laws. This includes:

- To make statutory returns to HMRC for VAT and income tax purposes
- To comply with my professional and regulatory obligations

- Performance of a task carried out in the public interest, namely processing necessary for the administration of justice.

- Consent

I may process your personal data with your consent. Where this is my lawful reason for processing, I will ensure that you have consented to the processing for each specific purpose for which I will process your data. Where the processing includes special category data, I will ensure that I have obtained your explicit consent to the processing in question. You may withdraw your consent at any time and without giving any reason.

In relation to special category personal data, my processing is necessary:

- For the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- For reasons of substantial public interest.

In relation to offence/convictions personal data, my processing is necessary:

- For the purpose of, or in connection with, legal proceedings (including prospective legal proceedings).
- For the purpose of obtaining legal advice.
- For the purposes of establishing, exercising or defending legal rights.

7. DO I SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

For the purposes set out in this notice, and subject always to my professional obligations of confidentiality and the legal professional privilege of my clients, I may provide your personal data to instructing solicitors, other barristers, Judges and Court Staff, Matrix management and trainees and other professional persons in accordance with my legal obligations or the administration of my professional affairs. I do not use automated decision-making in the processing of your personal data.

8. HOW LONG WILL YOUR PERSONAL DATA BE KEPT FOR?

I will not keep your information in a form that identifies you for longer than is necessary for the purposes set out in this notice or as required by applicable law. Unless the specific circumstances require me to keep it, I will delete, destroy or anonymise your information around 5 years after the end of the matter in which it featured. This will normally be around 5 years after the end of the case, or 5 years after the date of the last payment or the date of writing off of fees.

9. DO I TRANSFER PERSONAL DATA OUTSIDE THE EEA?

Although I am based in England, I may transfer your personal information to a location (for example, to a secure server) outside the European Economic Area, if I consider it necessary or desirable for the purposes set out in this notice. In such cases, to safeguard your privacy rights, transfers will be made to recipients to which a European Commission "adequacy decision" applies (this is a decision from the European Commission confirming that adequate safeguards are in place in that location for the protection of personal data), or will be carried out under standard contractual clauses that have been approved by the European Commission as providing appropriate safeguards for international personal data transfers, or by the adoption of EU-US Privacy Shield.

10. HOW DO I KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA SECURE?

I have security measures in place designed to ensure appropriate security for your personal data, including protections against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

11. YOUR INFORMATION RIGHTS

You have the following rights under data protection law:

- right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data
- right of access to your personal data, and the right to request a copy of the information that I hold about you and supplementary details about that information – you will be asked to provide proof of your identity and residential address, and you may be asked to provide further details to assist me in the provision of such information
- right to have inaccurate personal data that I process about you rectified

- right of erasure – in certain circumstances you have the right to have personal data that I process about you blocked, erased or destroyed
- the right to object to, or restrict:
 - processing of personal data concerning you for direct marketing
 - continued processing of your personal data
- the right of portability of your data in certain circumstances.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, I may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, I may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

Please note that these rights are subject to certain limitations that exist in law. In particular, a number of rights are not exercisable in relation to personal data:

- that consists of information in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings
- where disclosure of the data:
 - is necessary for the purpose of, or in connection with, legal proceedings (including prospective legal proceedings)
 - is necessary for the purpose of obtaining legal advice, or
 - is otherwise necessary for the purposes of establishing, exercising or defending legal rights to the extent that the exercise of those rights would prevent me from making the disclosure.

12. WHAT SHOULD YOU DO IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT?

I hope that if you have a complaint about the way I handle your personal data, you will contact me in the first instance via my practice team at PracticeTeamM@matrixlaw.co.uk, so that I have an opportunity to resolve it. However, should you find it necessary, you have a right to raise a concern with or make a complaint to the information regulator, the Information Commissioner's Office: <https://ico.org.uk/>.
